

Cytonn Investments Donates Food Worth Over Ksh. 0.5 Million to Residents of Mbitini, Kitui County

Cytonn Investments donated 3,780 and 1890 kilograms of maize and beans respectively, and 450 litres of cooking oil to over 1,000 residents of drought-stricken Mbitini Location, Kitui County.

Cytonn Staff begin distributing the food as the residents wait patiently for their turn

The food donation worth over Ksh. 0.5 Million is part of Cytonn's initiative dubbed 'Shilingi kwa Shilingi' that seeks to boost humanitarian aid in various parts of the country that are faced by drought.

Cytonn Staff Members distributing the food to the residents

Speaking at the Mbitini Chief's Camp where the food was distributed to the residents by Cytonn staff, Cytonn's Senior Distribution Manager, Mex Osoro said that the initiative is part of Cytonn's Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) activities and shall be happening annually. He added that Cytonn is committed to humanity and shall do what it can to help the needy and improve lives through donations and long lasting projects which may help in food security.

Cytonn's Senior Distribution Manager, Mex Osoro addresses the residents ahead of the food distribution

Cytonn's Senior Human Resource Associate Anne Wanjiru noted that the Cytonn team was honoured to be part of the experience and thanked the team for their willingness and efforts towards birthing the initiative.

Cytonn's Senior Human Resource Associate Anne Wanjiru addresses the residents

Mbitini Location Chief, Daniel Kitonga said that the donations will go a long way in alleviating the effects of the drought the area has faced. He appreciated Cytonn's decision to offer the donations to the residents of Mbitini.

Mbitini Location Chief, Daniel Kitonga addresses the residents

The crowd that turned up to receive the food